

Government of the District of Columbia
Department of Motor Vehicles
Certification of Eligibility for Full License With Conditions

In order for a learner to get the next level of license, the learner and their tutor(s) must certify that the learner has received at least 10 hours of nighttime driving experience. A tutor must accompany and instruct the learner while the learner is driving a motor vehicle. A tutor must be the holder of a valid motor vehicle driver's license, 21 years of age or older, occupying a seat beside the permittee and wearing a seat belt. After the completion of this form, submitted it with the learner's application and a photocopy of the tutor(s) driver's license for a full license.

By signing the above certification, I, the tutor, certify that the learner has received 10 hours of nighttime driving experience specified by me on the dates and times indicated. (If more than one person has tutored the learner in meeting the 10 hours of nighttime driving experience, each tutor's signature certifies only the hours for which that tutor accompanied and instructed the learner.) I also certify that I meet the requirements for being a tutor.
